2022 – 2023 COMMON READ PROGRAM: Taste Like War: A Memoir by Grace M. Cho – CHECK YOUR POSTAL MAILBOX

Yes!!! Your very own copy of Taste Like War: A Memoir was mailed directly to you this week. You should already have it in hand, if not, definitely in a few days. If you don't have it by Friday, 06/24, please email deanofstudents@hampshire.edu to let us know and we will mail one out to you. Please review the letter enclosed with the book carefully – please complete reading the book before moving to Hampshire, Thursday, August 25th.

As part of our commitment to centering race and power and deepening our understanding of the histories of racial imperialism, we have selected Grace M. Cho's Tastes Like War: A Memoir as the Common Read for 2022-2023. The Common Read is a selected book that we read and discuss together as a community. It will provide a glimpse into how we seek to foster collective learning and interactive dialogues about urgent problems. You will have several opportunities to discuss this memoir in your first year at Hampshire and it will begin at the New and Transfer Student Orientation Program. Here is a link to the Common Read resource guide.

Again, do take the time to read the entire book this summer and remember this is one item you want to pack and bring to Hampshire College. The following members make the Hampshire College Common Read Committee and we are so excited to be able to plan this program for all of you.
