

Fat Liberation Pizza Party

As part of the Body Politics & Empowerment Week, a Fat Liberation Pizza Party will take place at Hampshire College in the Center for Feminisms from 6:30-8:30 PM. This event is co-sponsored by the Hampshire College Wellness Center & Center for Feminisms.

This event is a CLOSED space for fat folks. We understand that body size is a spectrum and that fatness can vary in different contexts. However, we are asking folks to self-identify by asking themselves some questions about the material realities of sizeism: <https://tinyurl.com/Fat-Lib-Intentions> PLEASE read and reflect on these intentions we have provided for this space before coming to the event.
