Terms and Conditions. The Cuba group travel programs organized by Latin Art Space operate based on the General Educational License (People-to-People-Cultural Exchange) as per the Office of Foreign Assets Control (OFAC), Department of Treasury. Our tours are required to be structured programs, that promote people-to-people meaningful interactions. Participants are required to participate in the activities organized by Latin Art Space. Please be advised that the U.S. government does not maintain full diplomatic relations with Cuba, although negotiations are in the works with possible opening of embassies in July 2016. Latin Art Space will assume no responsibility and will not be held liable due to inappropriate actions or activities of any participant while on the tour.

Due to Cuban government regulations, the following coverage is included in your charter flight tickets: 1) Maximum of $20,000 to cover emergency medical costs incurred in Cuba; 2) Maximum of $7,500 evacuation insurance, provided only if a Cuban doctor states that you need to be evacuated in order to receive adequate treatment. Latin Art Space and its representatives (referred hereafter as Latin Art Space) are not responsible for the costs of any medical treatment you may require during the program. Under no circumstances is Latin Art Space responsible for the quality of medical care, or lack thereof, you may receive while on a Cuba program. For additional coverage, we recommend you purchase travel insurance.

Latin Art Space reserves the right to decline to accept or retain any person as a member of any of our Cuba travel programs. Latin Art Space also reserves the right to remove any person from a program in progress, if Latin Art Space reasonably determines their behavior is adversely affecting or jeopardizing the health, safety, or enjoyment of said person or other participants.

Responsibility. The responsibility of Latin Art Space and its representatives is strictly limited. Latin Art Space's Cuba travel programs consist of certain art-related, cultural, and educational travel services, including surface and air transportation, visits, meals, guides, and hotel accommodations that Latin Art Space reserves from various suppliers (collectively, "Suppliers"). Latin Art Space does not own or operate any of these Suppliers. The Suppliers providing services for Latin Art Space's Cuba travel programs are independent contractors, and are not agents or employees of Latin Art Space. As such, Latin Art Space is not responsible for any negligent or willful act or failure to act of any Supplier or of any third party.
