Registering for Courses

Click on "Search/Register for Courses".*

*Please note: As of May 2012, the “express registration” option is no longer available.
You may search for courses by term or date. It is recommended that you search for courses by term.

Search for courses by level within school. You can choose from: First year tutorials, 100 level exploratory courses, 200 level foundational courses, or 300 level advanced seminars and courses or co-curricular courses.

Search for a course using the course number.

Search for courses by school.

Search by meeting time.

Search for courses that meet on a certain day.

Enter a word or combination of words that appear in the course title.

After you have chosen which classes to search for; click “Submit”.
Click on the blue link under “Section Name and Title” to see a course description and information about prerequisites.

Once a search is completed and the results have been returned to you, you can add it to your list of “Preferred Sections” by clicking on the column titled “Select”.

To submit your choices, click “Submit”. They will appear on the next screen as “Preferred Sections”.
Register and Drop Sections

During the first week of course preregistration for spring and fall terms, you may register for a maximum of four academic courses, including a maximum of two Five College courses. This limit may apply during the add/drop periods. However, according to Amherst College policy, students must register for a maximum of two Amherst College courses per semester.

The course limit for January term is one academic course. For the first week of January preregistration, you will be limited to either enrolling in or waitlisting a single course. After the first week, you will be able to add, drop, and enroll from waitlists until you have finalized your registration by the deadline.

Co-curricular courses are not included in course limits.

Note: Courses are only displayed here for the registration term(s) currently open. Check "My Class Schedule" to see other terms.

Courses for which you are already registered for appear here under "Your Current Courses". Click on the box under "Drop" to drop a course you are currently registered for.

Click “Submit” once you have selected your action.

Remember that you can’t actually Register or Waitlist for any course until the start date/time for your individual registration. So it’s fine to create requests in advance of your registration access time, but you won’t have success with certain actions until your registration time has begun.

You can preregister for 4 academic courses, including a maximum of two Five College courses.

Please note that once a waitlist has begun, you must add yourself to the waitlist and wait for notification of an available space via email. Be sure to check your email daily.
Once you have submitted the action, a message will appear indicating whether the action was successful or unsuccessful, and if it was unsuccessful, why it was unsuccessful.

Courses you are currently waitlisted for show here. Please note, you must attend courses for which you are on the waitlist, as faculty will not write evaluations for students who have missed too many classes.

If you are on a waitlist for a course, you will be notified by email when a space becomes available. You must register yourself on TheHub within 24 hours of the time the email was sent to avoid being dropped from the waitlist.

Hint: If you are having trouble registering/preregistering, instead of trying to register for multiple courses at once, try registering for each course one at a time.
