

Welcome to the start of the academic year!

The Office of Foundation and Government Relations (OFGR) is pleased to announce the launch of its new faculty grant support website, which can be found at www.hampshire.edu/giving/ofgr. The website puts the tools and resources needed for successful grantseeking into the hands of all Hampshire faculty. With the support and guidance of the OFGR staff, faculty will be able to find external funding opportunities, develop a compelling proposal, and better understand how to manage the grant, once awarded. At this time, we'd also like to welcome our new Grants Coordinator, Brandee Simone, who will work with Marjorie Hutter and Beth Lisi to help bring faculty grant support to the next level in the coming academic year.

A few fundraising highlights from FY13:

- 68% of faculty and 61% of staff made gifts
- 100% of Hampshire College Trustees made a philanthropic contribution
- 76% of graduating students contributed to the Graduate Gift Program
- The Hampshire Fund raised over $1.82M in unrestricted support
- 26% alum participation
- The Roos-Rohde House raised $223,000
- Increased the Baldwin Endowment in its 20th anniversary year
- In celebration of the 10th anniversary of the CBD program, launched the CBD Student Project Endowment with a $500k gift
- AFR hosted more than 40 events across the country
- Launched new scholarship fund for Undocumented Students
- Held multiple Alumni Focus Groups across the country to explore the emerging themes of entrepreneurship, creativity, sustainability, social justice, and Hampshire's summer programs
- Hampshire College raised over $6 million in philanthropic support in FY13, thanks to the generous contributions of over 3,800 donors.

- The Office of Foundation and Government Relations (OFGR) submitted a total of 66 proposals, an 18% increase over last year's total of 56.
- More than 150 donors to financial aid received personal letters from scholars describing the direct impact their donations had.
- Students sent over 3,000 handwritten thank you cards to each and every Hampshire donor.

Congratulations to this year's Whiting Fellowship faculty recipients

Megan Dobro (NS) will conduct research focused on the challenges families and rural villages face in Thailand and South Africa with regards to HIV and AIDS. This project has grown out of her research interest in the molecular biology of the HIV virus.

Sara Rafferty (HACU) will conduct research in Europe, including Vienna, Basel, Zurich, Antwerp, Brussels, Paris, Amsterdam, Eindhoven, Cologne, and Berlin to explore the history and legacy of Conceptual Art as it relates to humor and pathos. Her studies will be incorporated into her theme-based courses in painting and art-making to reflect contemporary practices.

Billie Mandle (HACU) will travel to the town of Trosly-Breuil, France to live and photograph among the largest and oldest L'Arche community, an international organization for those living with and without disabilities. She will take this experience into the classroom to teach the course, "Community, Photography, Storytelling."

Brian Schultz (NS) plans to visit the International Centre of Insect Physiology and Ecology in Nairobi, Kenya, to learn about push-pull cropping systems. He will then incorporate what he learns into his agriculture courses and research conducted at Hampshire College's farm.
