

THE CENTER FOR FEMINISMS AND
THE QUEER COMMUNITY ALLIANCE CENTER WORK-STUDY APPLICATION

Please return this application to Emily Rimmer’s office in the Center for Feminisms, or email it to erimmer@hampshire.edu Center For Feminisms (CFF) and Queer Community Alliance Center (QCAC) student workers come together to form a collaborative group that runs and maintains both centers. Some student workers will focus on a project that is connected to just one center. Student workers are expected to build community as well as provide and support programming that addresses issues surrounding sexuality, gender, feminism, community, and social justice at Hampshire. Students must have work-study to be eligible for these positions.

Name: _____ Pronouns: _____
Entering Semester: _____ Division: _____ Box #: _____
Email: _____ Phone: _____

Are you a defensive driver? Yes /No/ I am qualified to become one (you have a valid driver license)

Are you planning on being on campus during the fall and spring semester next year? Yes No

Have you ever requested funding from FiCom or COCA using Zoho? Yes No Please list any computer programs you have experience using (i.e. Reddot, Photoshop, Adobe Illustrator, Microsoft Office.)

If you have been employed on campus, please list where you have been employed and the dates of your employment and name of supervisor:

Please list any student groups you have signed for, and when you have signed for them:

Please write one paragraph in response to each of the following questions:

1) Why do you value the Center for Feminisms and the Queer Community Alliance Center?

2) What experiences do you have building communities and planning events?

3) What practical skills do you have (poster designing skills, maintaining physical spaces, social media, cooking ect.)?

4) What affinity spaces or educational spaces could you help host (please list previous experiences and ideas)?

Additional information that you think would make you an ideal candidate for working at either the CFF or QCAc?